3. Remembering Service, today, 3pm in the Church: Our Remembering Service is open to everyone in the Church and in the wider community who would like to come and sit quietly at this simple, reflective service, which will last for around half an hour. It is an opportunity to remember those we have loved and lost, recently or a long time ago. During the service there will be an opportunity to write names on stars and attach them to our Remembering tree which will be placed beside the communion table. Please let friends, neighbours and family know that the service is taking place and invite them to attend if they would like. We will serve tea and coffee after the service.

To do this, we intend to kick things off with a training day for up to 16 people. The day will introduce us to the whole concept of the impact of familiar music to each of us and how we create individual playlists of significant songs for those living with dementia and others. This can be done by beginning to create a playlist for ourselves. Being a guinea pig refers to the fact that this will be the first time we have run this training. The day will be fully catered. If you are interested in attending or just finding out a little more, please contact the Pastoral Assistant, Jacqui Lindsay, at: pastoralassistant@morningsideparishchurch.org.uk ; Tel: 07834364628

7. Friends of Morningside: The AGM is on Sunday 4th May, 11.45am in the St Andrew Room. This group has existed for many years and provides a quiet but important witness and work on behalf of our Church. One of the most important things the Friends do is to provide funding for half of the choral scholarships, ensuring that we have a strong and wonderful choir to enhance our Sunday morning services. Other projects supported by the Friends include the pictures in the corridor opposite the pigeon holes, the photos of the five churches that went to make up the union that is now Morningside Parish Church, and most recently the blue cord and brass stanchions near the pulpit steps that keep the area safe for people who might not see the step down to the St Andrew Room. The Friends also saw to the publication of the history leaflet that tells the story of our Church. There are many, many more projects which have benefitted from the support of the Friends over the years.

If you would like to join the Friends of Morningside, you will find leaflets in the vestibule or make an enquiry through the Church Office. Please join and help us to continue supporting the important work of our Church.

8. Miniature Shetland Ponies - Tuesday 27th May, 2- 4pm, St Matthew Hall: We have arranged a very special visit from some therapy ponies, giving us a chance to pet, feed and generally enjoy the company of these gentle, gorgeous animals. Entry is by donation; all donations will go towards our Morningside Hope project.

9. Speaker Supper, 7.30pm, Friday 30th May: *I don't believe it! Crossman, Christie and Bletchley - Enigmas and Historical Truth. Lady Balfour of Burleigh (Janet Morgan), authorised biographer of Agatha Christie and Edwina Mountbatten, writer on the exploits of her father-in-law in establishing the Intelligence Corps in WW1 Paris and Luxembourg, and editor of the Richard Crossman Diaries of a Cabinet Minister (in Harold Wilson's troubled Government) delves into the challenges and morality of (re)writing history; the truth, the whole truth and nothing like the truth. Should historians reveal all, fill in the gaps or let sleeping dogs rest peacefully? How do you verify the evidence? Can you distinguish fiction from fact? Expect an entertaining evening of enigmas and moral dilemmas.
